Free Christian Resources

Here are free Christian resources for you (updated 2025), designated by different categories. The annotations are Biblical Studies (BS), Christian Apologetics (CA), Christian Biography (CB), Christian Living (CL), Church History (CH), Systematic Theology (ST) and Theology (T).

I have not read them all, but scanned over them briefly and have compiled them as a reading list, which is primarily Reformed. The dates provided are usually the date of original publication, as far as known.

If you are interested in Christian biographies and Church history, a top resource I recently read and highly recommend is by Cole, Steven J. Great Christians You Should Know: What I've Learned from Reading Christian Biographies. 2021. This book is available for purchase. You can get a free overview of the gist of the book here:

These other e-books and resources below are freely downloadable and are intended to help you grow in your walk of faith with Jesus Christ.

Always pray first, and ask the Holy Spirit to guide to you.

May God bless you and keep you.
Yours In Christ,

Henry, Matthew. A Method for Prayer. 1710. (CL)

Matthew Henry (1662-1714), an English nonconformist clergyman, is most noted for his commentary of the Bible. He was born at Broad Oak, a farmhouse on the borders of Flintshire and Shropshire. His father, Philip Henry, had just been ejected by the Act of Uniformity. Unlike most of his fellow-sufferers, Philip possessed some private means, and was thus able to give his son a good education. Matthew went first to a school at Islington, and then to Gray's Inn. He soon gave up his legal studies for theology, and in 1687 became minister of a Presbyterian congregation at Chester, removing in 1712 to Mare Street, Hackney. Two years later (June 22, 1714), he died suddenly of apoplexy at Nantwich while on a journey from Chester to London. (Theopedia)
